High-quality granite single sink Amsterdam 560, manufactured by the Dutch company Reginox.

The Reginox Amsterdam 560 kitchen sink is one of the most popular single-bowl sinks in an elegant design. Its attractive appearance and ideal dimensions make it suitable for the majority of standard kitchens.

The sink has a sufficiently deep bowl that provides enough space for washing large dishes such as baking sheets or bulky pots.

The advantage of a granite sink is its exceptionally smooth surface, where possible impurities have nowhere to settle. Maintenance is done simply by wiping it with a damp cloth.

High color variability and the possibility of coordinating with the rest of the kitchen, easy maintenance, and attractive design. Among the main advantages are excellent resistance to impact, scratches, and high temperatures.

The surface of Reginox sinks is exceptionally smooth, any impurities have nowhere to settle. Maintenance is done simply by wiping with a damp cloth.
